Editorial Note

We, the editors, wish to present a remembrance of a year at Albuquerque High School to you, the student body. Here is a record of your numerous activities; here the memories of school life live on. In the years to come may the 1952 La Reata serve as your remembrance of seconds, minutes and hours at AHS.

Wilson N. Willits

Helen Rogers

Jewell Brown

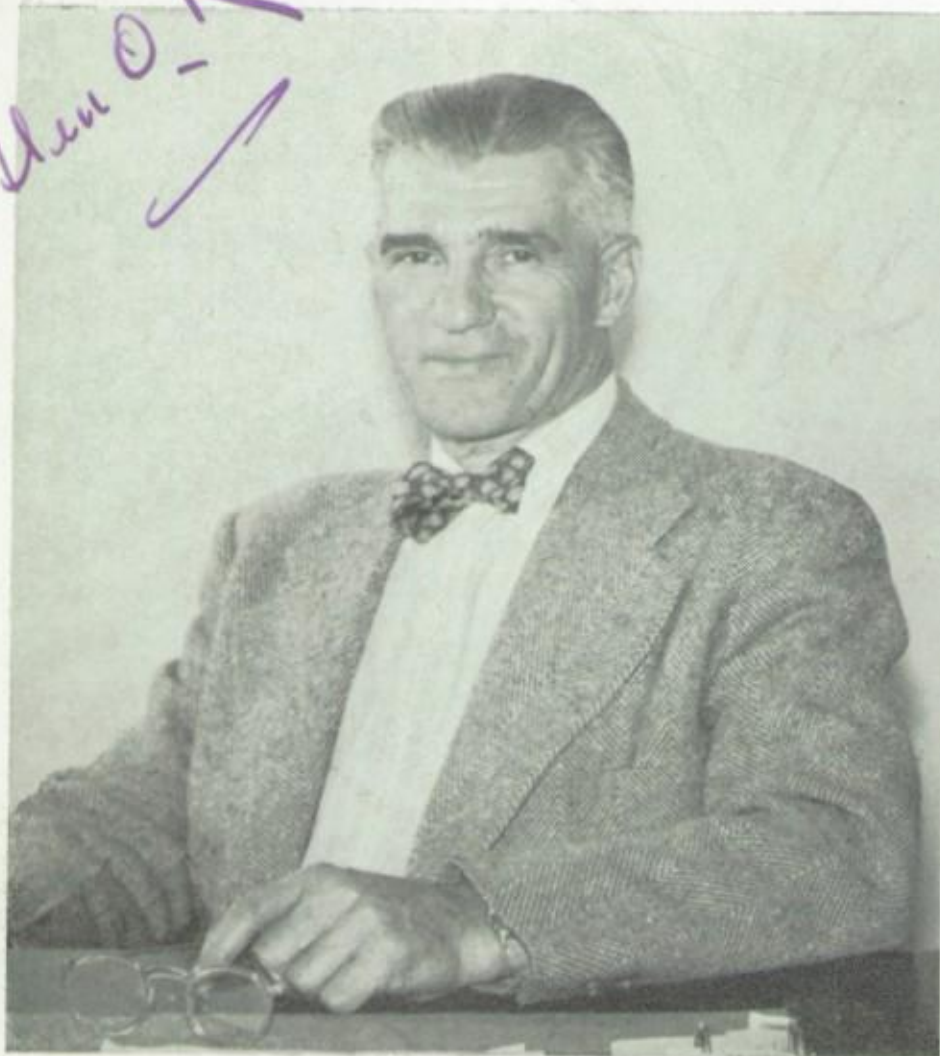

*7*o Jewell Brown, Helen Rogers, and Wilson Willits, our patient counselors, the 1952 La Reata is thoughtfully dedicated. This we do, expressing our appreciation for their sympathy and kindness to us, the student body.

ADMINISTRATION

Glen O. Ream -

Mary Cole Dixon

Principal

Glen O. Ream assumed the office of principal of Albuquerque High School in 1926. Outside of his duties, Mr. Ream is an artist, fisherman, golfer, and photographer. To the graduated students of AHS, Mr. Ream is the person who most represents Albuquerque High School.

Assistant Principal

Mary Cole Dixon has been vice-principal of AHS for twenty-six years. She is a graduate of the University of Kansas. Miss Dixon is respected and admired by the faculty and student body for her cooperativeness, sympathy, and wisdom.

Board of Education

Each new school year brings a larger number of students to the Albuquerque Public Schools. This is the main problem of the Board of Education, pictured below. Members of the board are, left to right: R. M. Elder, Mrs. Nicolai, R. W. Thorne, S. Y. Jackson, John Milne, D. A. Macpherson, and J. T. Varney.

Secretary

Mrs. Spence is a graduate of the 1942 class of Albuquerque High School. She became a member of the AHS office staff in 1949. Mrs. Spence serves as Mr. Ream's secretary and also is in charge of students' transcripts. Another one of her numerous jobs is the scholastic ranking of seniors.

Assistant Librarian

This is Mrs. Keleher's second year at AHS. She came here from Chicago, Illinois where she attended the Chicago Teacher's College. In the library she maintains card catalogues and keeps the library records.

Bookkeeper

The secretary-bookkeeper at AHS is Miss Helen Leahy. She came to Albuquerque High School in 1947. Her duties include handling the finances of campus activities. She issues orders for all materials bought by authorized clubs and organizations.

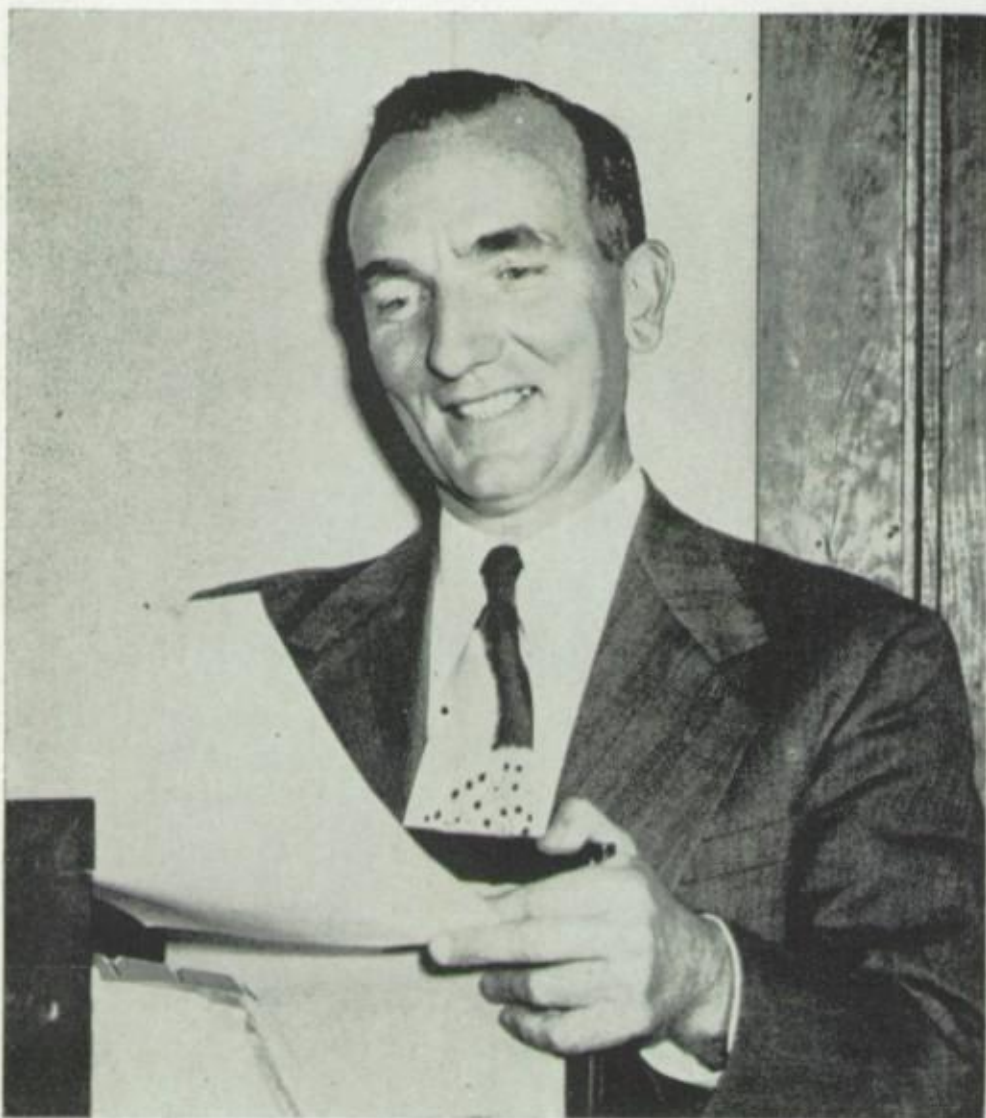

Librarian

Mr. Rovner is in charge of the circulation of some 18,000 books which leave the library, and he also tries to build up an interest in books within the student body. He has a BA degree from the University of New Mexico.

Counselors

The Counselor-Director of Student Affairs at AHS is Jewell Brown. He is in charge of Bulldog Day, Pioneer Day, and he helps on school dances, contests, and talent assemblies. He is also a sponsor of Student Council, Student Affairs Committee, and Inter-School Council. Mr. Brown, a native of New Mexico, has been superintendent, principal, and teacher in many schools of the state. Before accepting his present position, he taught U. S. History for two years. He has BA and MA degrees.

Before coming to AHS in 1945, Helen Rogers was Assistant Principal at Washington Junior High. During her first two years at AHS she taught Sophomore English and Personal Problems classes. She now serves as Dean of Girls. In this capacity she counsels girls, helping them to prepare for their future. She is a sponsor of Student Council, and also orders and distributes prizes for Pioneer Day.

Wilson N. Willits is coordinator of Distributive Education and Vocational Counselor. He was principal and teacher in Michigan before coming to AHS in 1946. He is in charge of testing services, and he maintains files of vocational materials and counseling fields. He also handles employment for students, and issues work permits. He has BA and MA degrees from Adrian College and the University of Michigan, respectively.

Attendance Office

Fannie Sanchez, a graduate of Albuquerque High in 1945, works in the attendance office as Miss Dixon's secretary. She attended the University of New Mexico for a year in the college of Arts and Sciences. In 1947 she came to Albuquerque High School.

Her duties include checking credits, posting grades, and caring for personnel cards.

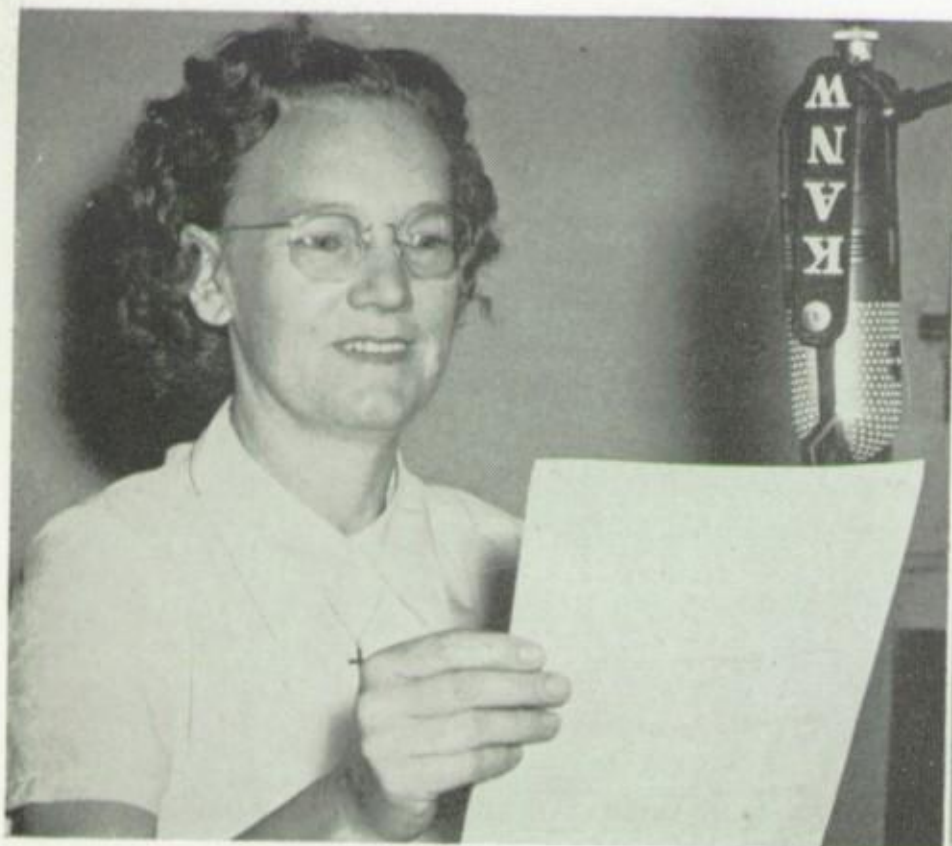

Sam Jack, a graduate of East Central State Teachers College of Oklahoma, became head of the attendance office in 1947. The present attendance system at Albuquerque High was inaugurated by Mr. Jack.

It is the most effective system that the school has ever used. By his judicious treatment of the attendance problems, Mr. Jack has won the respect of the student body.

Charlotte Krampitz came to A. H. S. from Madrid, New Mexico, where she was a teacher. She has worked in the attendance office at Albuquerque High for seven years.

Along with her regular duties, which includes calling parents of absent students and keeping attendance records, she is sponsor of Ski Club and is working on her B.A. degree at the University of New Mexico.

Director of KANW

The full time director of Public Schools Radio Station KANW is Rose Jeanne Carlisle. She selects, produces and schedules the in-school listening programs that reach the city schools.

Mrs. Carlisle received her BA degree from Ohio State University and her MA degree from the University of New Mexico. She took radio at Denver University.

Director of Audio-Visual Aids

William P. Davies arranges film schedules, receives films, and arranges for the showing of the films at AHS. He is Director of Audio-Visual Aids for the Albuquerque Public Schools. Mr. Davies is in charge of the maintenance of the audio-visual equipment of Albuquerque schools.

Mr. Davies is a graduate of the University of New Mexico and has BS and MA degrees.

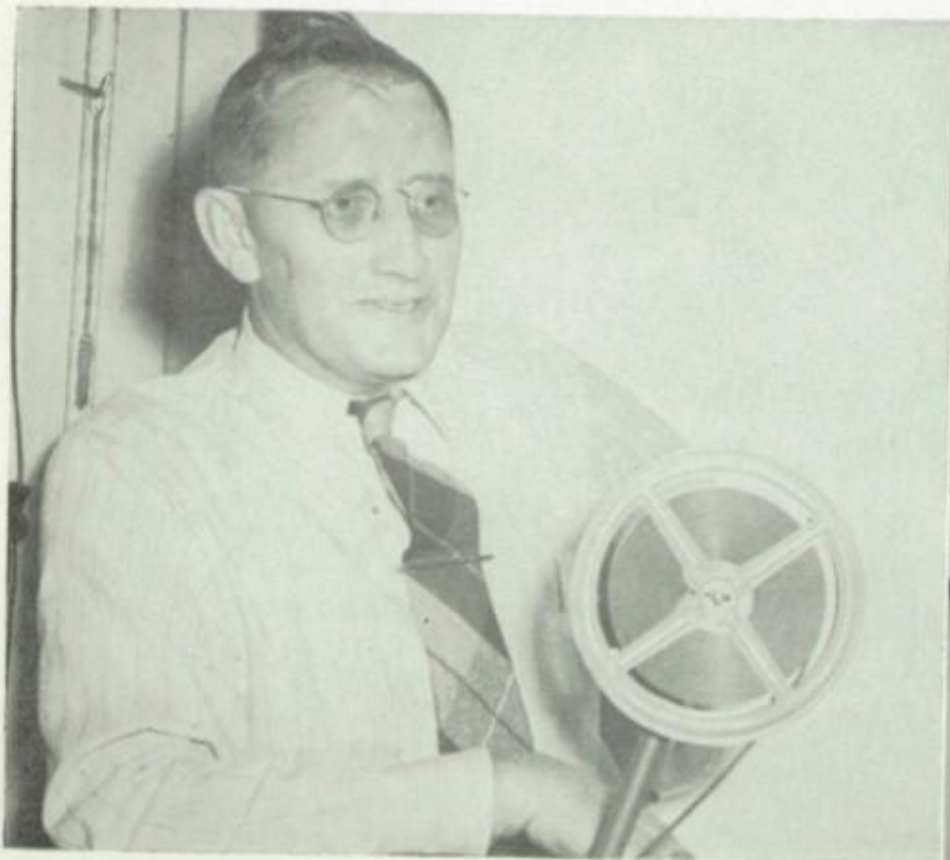

School Nurse

Mrs. Frances J. Baughman, Albuquerque High School's nurse is an active person. Besides caring for the many ailing students who flock to her office, Mrs. Baughman assists in the physical examination of the sophomore class. She conducts classes for the Red Cross in first aid and home nursing when not busily engaged in caring for the ills of the many children she must see each day.

Book Room Librarian

Ella C. Herrera has the endless job of keeping track of AHS textbooks. She collects the fines on lost and damaged textbooks. Some of her time is devoted to the secretary work of the teachers. She types and mimeographs tests.

Mrs. Herrera attended the Albuquerque Business College and she also went to St. Joseph's College for two years.

Custodians

To the above custodians we owe the cleanliness of our school. We appreciate their kindness and friendliness. Keeping the grounds and buildings of AHS is the job of those pictured above. The custodians take pride in their work and are always willing to lend a helping hand.

Cafeteria Personel

Falling on the shoulders of those pictured below is the job of preparing enough food for the student body. They also spend an hour and a half serving the meal in three half-hour shifts and serve 600 to 750 meals a day.

BOB CAMPBELL

Bob Campbell, the class president, came to Albuquerque High from Washington Junior High. He has been a leader in school activities for three years, serving as president of his class in all three years. Bob also takes part in athletics, earning a letter in track.

JANET BARNES

Janet Barnes, coming to AHS from Jefferson Junior High School, is the class secretary-treasurer. She has held the office for the past three years. She measures up to the standards of her position with her fine grades. She is a member of the Honor Society.

JERRY DAVIS

Jerry Davis, the class vice-president, also came to Albuquerque High from Washington Junior High. Serving for the first time as a class officer, Jerry has proved himself a leader. A letterman in football, Jerry has been chosen to be an officer in the A Club.

The Senior Class of 1952 leaves A. H. S. with an enviable record of achievement. During the past three years, many outstanding individuals in the class have contributed to the success of the school. Of this we are proud. Of even greater pride to each senior is the fact that every member of the class has helped make A. H. S. a top school. Each one leaves behind a record for all underclassmen to strive to attain. Many have made outstanding scholastic records; others have made their mark in Art, Music, Drama, R.O.T.C., Radio, Athletics, or Journalism.

Senior class officers are Bobby Campbell, president; Jerry Davis, vice president; and Janet Barnes, secretary-treasurer. Bobby and Janet have held their offices for three years.

Paul Lambert is Student Council president; Freddie

Leyba, A Club president and Gretchen Stromberg is president of the Pepper Club.

Leading our cheers this year were five senior girls: Jane Fenley, Tresa Lanham, Nancy Vann, Clara Lee Miller and Shirley Archibeck.

The editors of our publications were seniors. Al Beebe guided The Record staff, while John Johnson directed La Renta. Guiding the Yucca staffs for the two semesters were Rhoda Fitzgerald and Chris Martino.

One of our loveliest Bulldog Queens, Nelia Owens, was crowned by Paul Lambert on behalf of the student body. She was attended by Celina Sanchez and Lucille Gutierrez.

Graduation brought the Seniors' year to a close on a solemn note with each individual preparing himself for the challenges that will confront him in the future.

The dramatically inclined members of the class presented a well performed play, "The Miser" with Armand Turpin in the lead part of the miser.

By sponsoring the annual spring Junior-Senior Prom, the Junior class proved that they rank with the best of classes of Albuquerque High School.

SOPHOMORES

Nine hundred and sixty seven students brought the Sophomore class of '51-'52 into being last fall. The new arrivals appreciated the aid they received from the Pepper Club, stimulating a friendly relationship between new and old students. It also helped them adjust themselves to school life at Albuquerque High.

Organizations

STUDENT COUNCIL

The most prominent organization at A. H. S. is the Student Council. This representative body of A. H. S. citizens is under the direction of Principal Glen O. Ream and Student Affairs Counselor Jewell Brown.

The Student Council serves as a sounding board whereby the students express their opinions through their elected representatives.

It is divided into many committees, for example: Special Days, Assemblies, Dances, Finance and Decoration. These committees plan such activities as the traditional Green and White Ball, Pioneer Day, and Pep Rallies.

The student body owes a lot of thanks to the wonderful job done this past year by the Student Council.

Cantata

One of the main events looked forward to in the year of 1951 was the presentation of the annual Christmas Cantata. It consisted of one hundred and fifty Albuquerque High School students both boys and girls.

The coming of the Christ Child was illustrated in the tableau in back of the chorus. There were approximately ten students to illustrate each scene. It was presented under the direction of Miss Virginia McManus.

The chorus was accompanied at the piano by Jane Fenley and Saturnino Garcia. On the 17th of December, the cantata was held for the students at Albuquerque High School. There were approximately four solos and four trios. The cantata was enjoyed by everyone who attended. The student body showed great enjoyment of it. It will long be remembered for its beautiful scenes and its sincere Christmas spirit.

A Capella Choir

The A Capella Choir is composed of a number of girls chosen by tryouts and selected from the advanced girl's chorus. The old members pick the newcomers at the beginning of each school year. The membership is limited to about thirty girls, and it is the desire of every girl taking chorus to become a member of A Capella. As the name implies, the girls sing entirely without the aid of a piano or other accompaniment.

Student Affairs Committee

The Student Affairs Committee is made up of representatives from different school organizations such as A Club, Pepper Club, and Student Council. The duties of this committee are to plan dates for important events and planning school functions.

Nurse's Aides

Albuquerque High wishes to thank Mrs. Baughman and her nurse's aides for the many comforts they have provided for the students who have taken ill while at school.

The following students, proudly known as nurse's aides, health examinations. Since there are many students to be examined, the nurse's aides help the doctor by weigh-are: Kay Kimble, Joan Martin, Nancy Kern, Aileen Leftow, Jo Anne Moorner, Dorothy McKenzie, Lavonne McMillan, Marian Jones, Mary Kious, and Cecile Jones.

Office Aides

The following girls are the helpers of our heavily-worked office staff. These young ladies collect attendance slips and do other jobs for the administration of our school.

BOOKROOM AIDES

Albuquerque High School owes a great deal of thanks to Mrs. Ella Herrera who runs the bookroom. She and her bookroom aides issue the books to the students in the fall and change the books each semester. Book fines and losses are also taken care of by Mrs. Herrera. She helps the teachers by typing and mimeographing tests for them. There are 19 girls helping Mrs. Herrera this year. Everyday of the year she is issuing books or taking fines for books. The bookroom is found in the Main building.

COUNSELORS AIDES

The Counselors, Mrs. Rogers, Mr. Willits, and Mr. Brown, are aided by the girls shown below. These students run errands for our busy counselors. They also take students to classes and aid in keeping track of our 2400 students. New students are oriented by this group and messages for faculty and students are handled by these busy girls.

Few people realize that AHS possesses its very own radio station. KANW is not only owned and operated by AHS but broadcasts from atop the Administration building.

Among some of the broadcasts are musical programs for grade school students and broadcasts put on by students of various schools.

Jeanne Carlisle, Director of programs, hands a record to Mr. Maxson before a program.

THE YUCCA

The Yucca staff is composed of some of the literary Seniors of Albuquerque High School. These seniors donate their time and talents to writing feature articles, poems, short stories, editorials, and reviews for the reading enjoyment of the entire school. The members of the Yucca staff work under the direction of Miss Phillips for the first semester and under Miss Hickman the second semester.

The semi-annual publication is not limited to Seniors only. Articles by other students are gladly received and considered for publication.

LA REATA

The chief ambitions of a high school are to show spirit and ability. Publications of a high school are a part of this. Albuquerque High School has three publications: The Record, Yucca, and La Reata. All of these are edited by student staffs.

The final publication of the year is La Reata. Its appearance brings a partial holiday among the students for securing the signatures, good wishes, and compliments of their friends.

La Reata is the oldest student organization. The first volume appeared in 1909, three years before New Mexico became a state.

Since 1918, it, as well as other publications, has been printed by the Albuquerque High School Press.

La Reata, Albuquerque High School's yearbook, was sponsored this year by R. W. Thomas and W. M. Walling. Mr. Thomas was staff sponsor while Mr. Walling and his students in the school's print shop set the type, made up the pages, printed and bound the books.

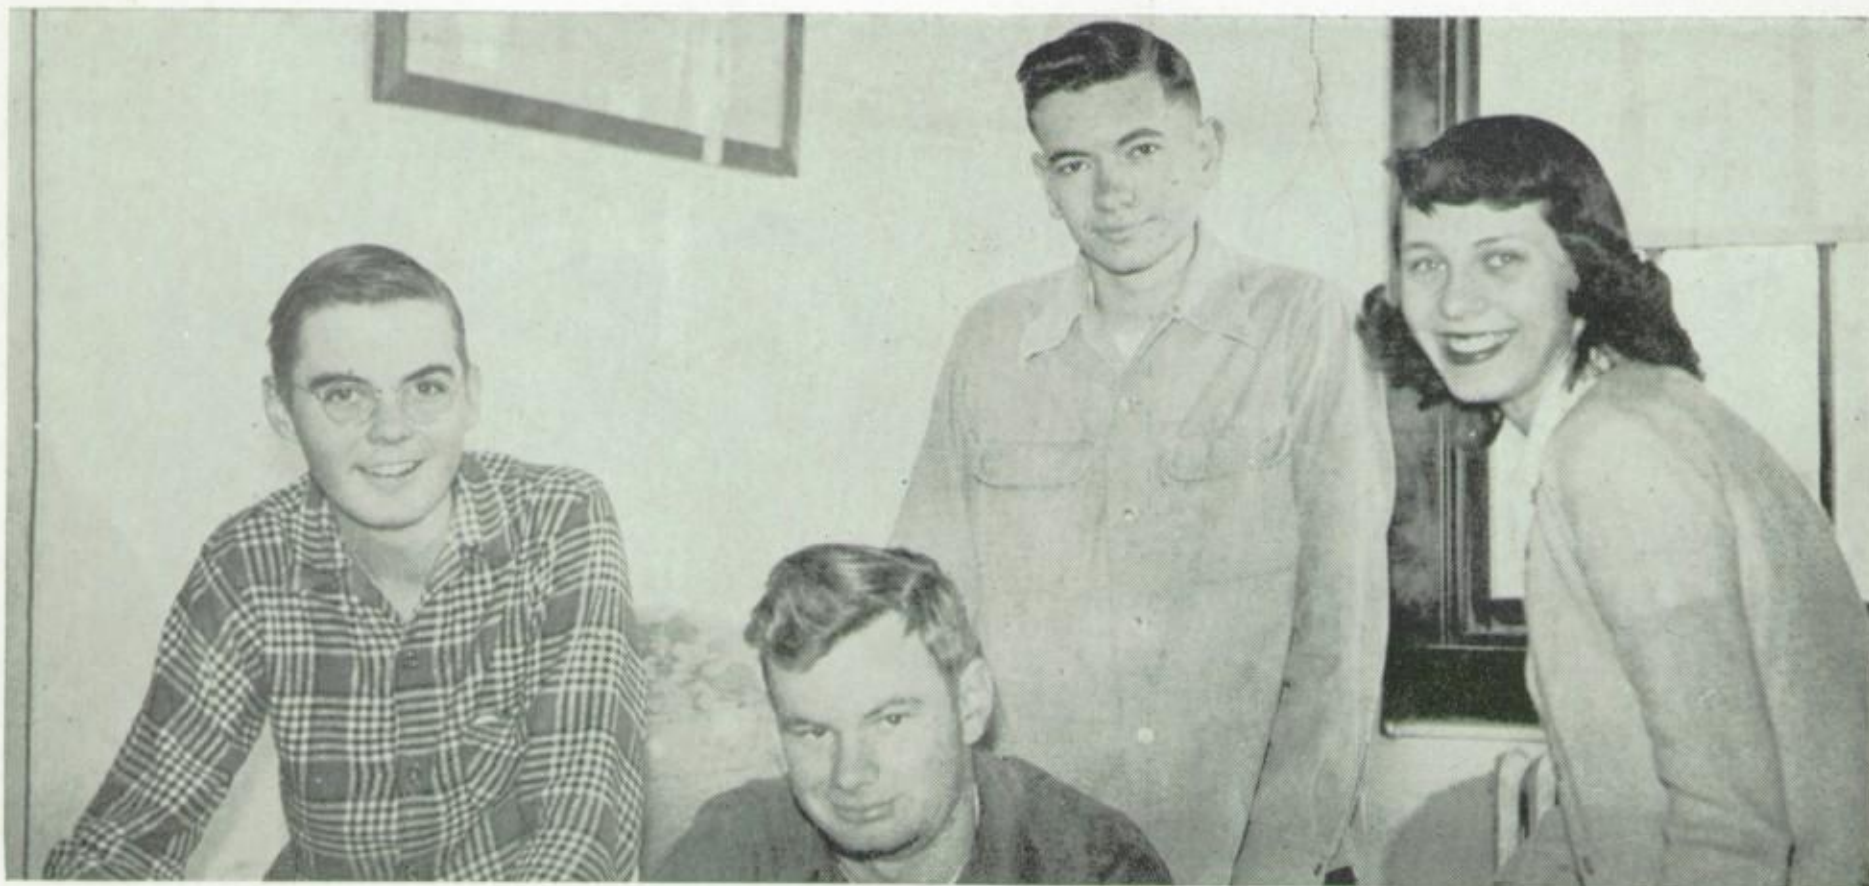

John Johnson, editor-in-chief, had a staff of twenty-one students who helped in the job of gathering the pictures and information necessary to make this yearbook. These students had to cut, paste, and measure pages and pictures. They had to gather data on the clubs in order to write the copy included in this year's book. Also, they had to decide which pictures to include and which ones to omit. Engravings for these pages had to be properly labeled. Before this could be done, however, layouts and page plans were needed.

This task was done by these students during sixth and seventh periods and after school. All this and more was necessary to prepare this book for its critical but appreciative audience.

THE RECORD

The Record, the Albuquerque High School paper, records the past, present and the future in the news of the school. It had its birth in 1919 in a journalism class. It was the first attempt along journalistic lines since 1902 when the senior class published The Accident.

The staff, under the supervision of Dr. Buskirk, consists of the editor in chief, the assistant editors, business manager, reporters, typists and feature writers. Many contests, state and national, are open to articles written by The Record staff and many merits have been awarded to the staffs of the past and present. Another important event of the year is the Annual Press Convention held in Las Vegas, the officers of which have many times been elected from The Record staff.

All material written is checked by the copywriters, editor in chief and faculty supervisor. Any alert sophomore, junior or senior is welcome to be a member of the staff. Promotions depend on the merit of the assignments turned in.

All students owning co-ops are issued a Record. Otherwise, it costs five cents. As a result, the circulation is wide. It has long been a policy not to take advertisements from downtown businesses, but students are allowed to advertise.

Printing of The Record is done by Mr. Walling and his staff in the print shop.

CARPENTER SHOP

Mr. Lowery and the woodworking shop crews have produced the furniture used in the outer office of Mr. Ream's office. They have finished and re-built desks and have turned out many another piece of furniture for our school. This year girls are given an opportunity to learn the functions of a planer and lathe. First and second periods, woodworking is for girls.

In the top, the boys under Mr. Lowery's guidance, are finishing some of the many pieces of fine furniture

Print Shop

The print shop is a very important department of Albuquerque High School. They print student body publications such as the La Reata, Yucca and Record. They also print such things as the now famous Bulldog's Bark, football and basketball programs, and office forms for the entire school system. The boys who work

Wood Shop

There are over fifty students in Wood Shop. In the few short years this class has been offered, the boys have developed an understanding of carpentry techniques, as used in assembly line methods. The object of these boys is to prepare themselves for a career in furniture making and woodcrafts. Shown here are: Phil Lopez, Frank Trujillo, Mr. Nelson Lowery, Robert Cantrell, James McCracken and Henry Passmore.

Auto Mechanics

The Auto Mechanics shop is one of the network of "classrooms" where the students get vocational training by doing various jobs of repairing and rebuilding automobiles. Mr. L. E. Cornish is auto mechanics instructor, and he teaches the boys the methods of engine repair. Different boys in auto mechanics, various students and teachers, and several townspeople bring their cars into the shop for repair. Here the boys tear down, repair, replace and then reassemble the engines or parts they are working on. The only charge for having your car repaired in auto mechanics comes in the parts used.

Machine Shop

The boys in the machine shop under the instruction of Mr. Hartline do work in machining and metal. They are preparing themselves for a career working with machinery and power tools. They turn out machine parts and make metal tools for the school system, such as metal tables, brackets and other such things. At this work, the boys prove themselves indeed capable. This excellent work is due to the fine job of instructing done by Mr. Hartline, and the individual ability of the boys.

The machine shop has been in existence at Albuquerque High School for practically as long as the school itself.

Show below are: Mr. Hartline, Earl Simon, Vlyres Gutierrez and Dewey Mann.

MILITARY SCIENCE

The R.O.T.C. Unit at AHS is organized into a regiment, consisting of two battalions and five companies. The first year is devoted to basic military training while the second and third year emphasizes leadership, citizenship, and more advanced military training. This R.O.T.C. training counts as a solid course.

The R.O.T.C. Unit has a rifle team as well as a drill team. One of the highlights of the school year is the annual Military Ball sponsored by the R.O.T.C. Department.

Class Play

Tennis Club

One of the many sports for girls at AHS is the Tennis Club. It is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Eva Nobbs. They play in the fall and spring up until the winter season, then begin again in April. They meet every Tuesday evening after school at the Tingley Park Courts. There are approximately twenty girls who have joined of all the classes of sophomores, juniors and seniors. It is for the pleasure of learning how to play tennis and a chance to meet new friends. The rackets and balls are furnished by AHS. The school also furnishes the balls and rackets for overnight and weekends. Following are members of the Tennis Club: Front row, left to right: Flora Gonzales, Carol Keith, Mary Ann Lopez, Jo Ann Moorer. Back row: Jennie Mora, Betty Tapia, Jean Reardon, Mary Romero, Deloris Chavira, Marilyn Leurig, and Mrs. Gamertsfelder.

Sen-Sims Tri-Hi-Y

Sen-Sims Tri-Hi-Y has been an outstanding service club to AHS this year. They have made posters to provide the school's support for the football, basketball, hockey and baseball games and the track meets. At Easter, Sen-Sims sponsored the movie, "King of Kings" for all high school students, and gave an Easter egg hunt for an orphanage. They also gave financial aid to many worthwhile charities. The students will long remember the two dances that Sen-Sims sponsored: "The AHS Get Acquainted Dance" and the "Cafe Rendezvous Dance."

Archaeology

The Archaeology Society has as its purpose the uniting of those students interested in archaeology for digs, side trips, and field trips. Most of the members come from current classes in Archaeology and Anthropology. This group takes many trips, but the most important and educational field trip is an annual excursion to the legendary Zia, Jemez, and Santo Domingo pueblos on King's Day, January 6.

The officers of the organization are Kenneth Lopp, president; Bella Elkins, vice president; and Jackie Barnes, secretary treasurer.

The Archaeology Society is one of the oldest clubs at Albuquerque High. The sponsor is Mrs. Elaine Dorrington.

Bowling Club

The Bowling Club is composed of twelve girls and a few boys who are camera shy of our photographer.

The club meets once a week after school at Chaplin Alley. This organization has as its objective the promoting of interest in bowling.

Mrs. Nobbs and Mrs. Gamertsfelder act as the club's sponsors.

The officers of the club are Kittie Keith, president; Mella Silva, vice-president and Beatrice Lujan, secretary treasurer.

F. F. A.

F. F. A. is the familiar name for the Future Farmers of America. The Future Farmers of America consist of the coming farmers and ranchers of the Rio Grande Valley. The purpose of this club is "to interest boys in agriculture", and their code is "to practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities of leadership which a future farmer should possess. As vocational agriculture, F. F. A. is designed to help boys realize the better practices of farming, and to get pleasure from their work through using scientific practices.

The Albuquerque Chapter of F. F. A. was granted a charter by the national organization in October, 1937. Since then it has been one of the most active clubs in school, having a booth at the State Fair each year.

F. T. A.

Future Teachers of America is a club formed for students who are interested in teaching. It has been organized since 1949 and now has 17 members. This chapter was named in honor of our popular principal, Mr. Glen O. Ream. The club meets every two weeks in the art room to discuss information and receive advice on their future profession.

Their activities for this year have included an interesting field trip to the University of New Mexico. They also sponsored a movie on education which was given in the library basement. At one of their meetings they had a very interesting guest speaker, the president of the Town Club of the University. Here at school, the members see and learn many things about teaching by observing the methods used by our own faculty.

Outdoor Club

Dramateens

Latin Club

The Albuquerque High School Latin Club is a member of the Junior Classical League, a nationwide organization sponsored by Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

Their purpose is to study ancient civilization and to learn their affect on our languages, laws and cultures.

Holding their charter are Ada Mae Williams, Nancy Minces, Earnestine Patino, Larry Bonaguidi, Mary Van Atta and Helen Carnes.

Modern Dance

Traffic Squad

O. N. C. O. Club

The O.N.C.O. Club has for its members the non-commissioned officers of the Military Science Department of AHS. The Club plans and finances the Military Ball, the regimental picnic, and they are also in charge of all the other social activities of the Military Science Department. Shown, left to right, front row: Jimmie Stevens, president; Forest Hannan, treasurer; Bert Terrazas, vice president; Gar De Wilde, secretary.

Projector Club

The Projector Club is a group of students who have an interest in showing movies. If you have ever attended a movie in the Library basement, you were enjoying the services of the Projector Club.

Pepper Club

The Pepper Club is composed entirely of girls. Mrs. Virginia Sacks is the club sponsor. The officers of Pepper Club are Gretchen Stromberg, president; Frances Lannigan, vice-president; and Jane Fenley, secretary treasurer. The Pepper Club has two formal dances a year, one at Christmas time and one in the spring. The girls in this club work very hard in activities around the school to improve AHS and to gain points for advancement in the club.

*Buenos

Silver Saddles*

Silver Saddles

Shown here are a few of the active members of Silver Saddles, an organization which gathers together those students interested in horses and riding. The sponsors of this club are Captain Smart and Miss Gomes. This group puts on a horse show on Pioneer Day. During this show a good display of skill is seen. It is an event students don't care to miss.

Rollicking Rollers

The Rollicking Rollers were started this year by Miss Arretche. Early in the year they elected officers. Imogene Wedemeyer is president; vice-president is Ronald Royster; secretary treasurer is Audrey Putzier. They decided to have the club once a week on Monday nights. The turn out for skating has been very good this year. The East End Roller Rink was the meeting place until the ice arena opened for roller skating.

The traveling trophy was returned to Bulldog trophy case for the third consecutive year when the Canines defeated the Hornets in the annual Thanksgiving Day game.

Not a perfect season, but a good one! Losing only a few and tying one, the Bulldogs played real football emerging the victors in the majority of their games.

During the first part of the season the Bulldogs proved themselves more than once by coming from behind to cop the victory. Defensive and offensive playing improved steadily as the season progressed.

Coach Pete McDavid, to whom much of this season's success goes.

A slump followed which lasted until the third annual Turkey Day game with Highland High School. Prompted by a pre-game pep rally and bonfire, the fans and team lifted their school spirit to its height. The fiercely contested battle between the crosstown rivals climaxed the season returning the Bill Denny trophy to AHS for the third consecutive year.

SEASON SUMMARY

Gallup—The Bulldogs got their '51 season off to a good start with a win over the Tigers of Gallup.

Deming—The Bulldogs came through strong against Deming, as expected.

Clovis—Bulldogs scored heavily to avenge last year's upset.

Artesia—Another Bulldog team showed strength before Albuquerque came from behind to gain a tie.

Santa Fe—The Demons looked as though they wanted to win before the great Bulldog line beat them into submission.

St. Mary's—The closest game of the season. The Bulldogs in a last ditch effort, scored two touchdowns in five minutes.

Carlsbad—The state champions for two years running showed their great scoring ability against AHS.

Las Cruces—Our boys were smarting from their

BASKETBALL

Albuquerque High put upon the basketball court this year, a group of players, small in stature, but big in heart, and full of spirit. To Coach Heinsohn, who stands approximately six feet six inches, this squad looked small indeed. However, with Heinsohn's able direction and the team's spirit and will to win, Albuquerque High had a basketball squad of which it truly can be proud.

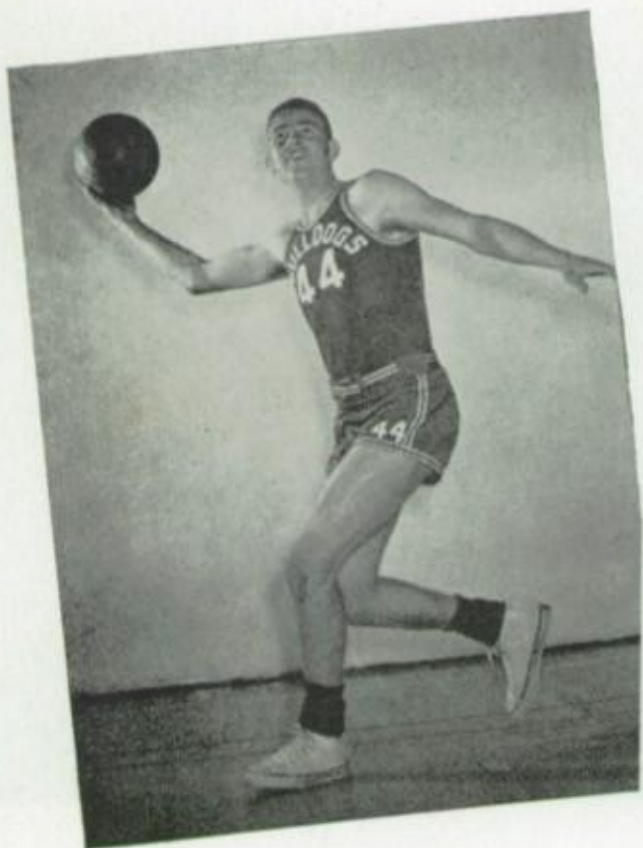

The first game against Highland, in the AHS gym, was indeed a thriller for the Bulldog boosters and showed the followers of both schools that the AHS thinclads were going to be hard to beat. The Bulldogs, a great home team, always gave the local followers a good show regardless of the final outcome. Smiling out from the picture below are the boys who composed the 1952 Bulldog basketball team.

Sitting: Ruben Rubio, Luciano Sedillo, Roger Aragon, Larry Walker and Ware Ullom.

After rigorous conditioning and long hours of practice, the Bulldogs were primed for the 1951-52 basketball season. Coach by Bob Heinsohn and managed by Chris Martino and Leonard Foster, the Canines began the great battle. Playing the leading squads of the state, the Bulldogs emerged with a 13-13 record. The Bulldogs played good ball all the way, but they were lacking in height, five feet ten being the average.

There will be six experienced lettermen returning for the 1952-53 season. They are: Tom Curley, Larry Walker, Luciano Sedillo, Ruben Rubio, Mike Padilla and Richard Trott. Coach Heinsohn is hoping for some new men with height to begin next year's season, making it a great year in basketbal for the Bulldogs.

season for this year. We wrestled the team from the School for the Blind at Alamogordo, the Amarillo Sandies, Boys' Ranch of Texas, and Highland High School. Our team this year had enough depth in the various weights, but the boys had no real experience. The greatest number of our matches were held here at home, but about the middle of the season the wrestling team took a field trip to Amarillo, Texas for matches there. The boys on the team got useful coaching from Lloyd Wayne, who dropped in several times to see the sport that he and Coach Rushing got started here at Albuquerque High.

TRACK SQUAD

Sixth row: Kenneth Tyson, Donald Franick (Mgr.), Dick Hamilton, Joe Harris, Max Roybal Jr., Joe Wilson, Ralph Solether, Bill Tucker, Henry Apodaca, Eddy Murphy, Calvin Landis, Richard Lampson, Bill Fox.

Fred Leyba pulls ahead to win the 100 yard dash in the 1952 track meet.

Sam Short expertly displays the form and strength required for discus throwing.

Jim Tuttle leads away from Allan Fogell and Jimmy Hamlin (HHS) as he races over the hurdles.

TRACK

With a heavy spring schedule, the AHS thinclads got the season under way with regular and hard conditioning drills. After the Bulldog seniors won the intra-class meet, the tracksters lost to Highland, but shattered records, copped 3 relay crowns, and several individual championships in the Albuquerque Relays. Falling behind again in the annual intra-city track meet, the Bulldogs entered the Ft. Sumner carnival as defending champions of the Fox Relays. Repeating the win, the squad piled up points for top honors in the Clovis Invitational Meet. The Canine thinsters track and field hopes are high for the District and State Meets.

SUMMER BASEBALL

The summer baseball of 1951 was very exciting and victorious for the Bulldogs. They climaxed the season by winning the Frank Mindlin Area "Champ" Trophy. The trophy is seen here being presented to Coach Jack Rushing by Dick Hall, State Legion Commander and Gil Archuleta, Department Chairman of Junior Baseball.

BASEBALL TEAM

The "Canine Nine" of Albuquerque High School went into the 1952 baseball season assured of a higher standing than was achieved last year. The team, under the expert guidance of Coach Jack Rushing, who piloted a squad through Legion Tourney play to a second place slot, is picked for a top position in the state this year.

Jack Brown cracks a toothpaste smile for the photographer as he crosses home plate against O.L.O.S.

five major events: push ups, chin ups, bar vault, jump reach and the 300 yard shuttle run. They deserve much praise for their grand ability in track competition. An Albuquerque High Student, Eddie Murphy, holds the state championship title in pentathlon activities.

GOLF TEAM

After a three week period of competition the Bulldog linksmen entered the Albuquerque "ladder" tournament. With a total of $17\frac{1}{2}$, compared to the University Frosh 14, and Highland $13\frac{1}{2}$ in a triangular Nassau links match, the team got off to a good start for the season with position atop the prep links ladder. Playing against Artesia, New Mexico Military Institute, and team will be built. Coach Valdez has received an excellent turnout for the team and he feels optimistic about the swimming team's future once things are underway.

TENNIS TEAM

The Bulldog Tennis team opened their season against the University of New Mexico's reserve team. Splitting victories, the AHS netters won three matches. The cross-town rivalry was revived as the Canines traded shots with the Highland Hornets and smashed to a 14 to 1 victory over the Hive. Winning over Las Vegas, Artesia, New Mexico Military Institute and Santa Fe, with more games scheduled, the Bulldogs racked up scores for a very successful season.

At right, with a pleasant smile as he dreams of future victories, is Coach Tony Valdez, who directs the athletic activities of the boys shown on this page.

HOCKEY

In completing its third year at AHS, ice hockey became more popular than ever before. About thirty boys turned out for the team. By a process of elimination the number was cut to seventeen. The team was coached by George Foehr who expects good results next year because the whole first line will be returning lettermen. Th Bulldogs had a fair season ending up second in the loop with four defeats and three wins.

Some of the girls in a regular Wednesday swimming class are shown above. They are: Loretta Fukazawa, Janet King, Rose Nichols, Jackie Hewitt and Eva Chavez.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The girls at Albuquerque High School are offered an extensive program of athletics. This program consists of everything from dancing to field hockey. During the winter the girls participate in indoor sports such as tumbling, volley ball, folk and square dancing, modern dancing, ping pong, basketball, badminton, shuffleboard and tennis. Swimming is taught every Wednesday at the Y.M.C.A. This course in swimming not only instructs beginners but the intermediate and advanced students in swimming and lifesaving practices as established by the American Red Cross.

Basketball and volleyball are two very popular girls' sports at AHS. Trying for a basket is Bettie Tapia and number three is Carmen Chavez. Getting ready to bat the volley ball is Mary Lou Chavez. The girl next to her is Rosalie Stevens.

Lillian Saavedra, second baseman is Diana Coloff, short stop is Euphemia Contreras, and third baseman is Vonda Carter.

GIRLS' SPORTS

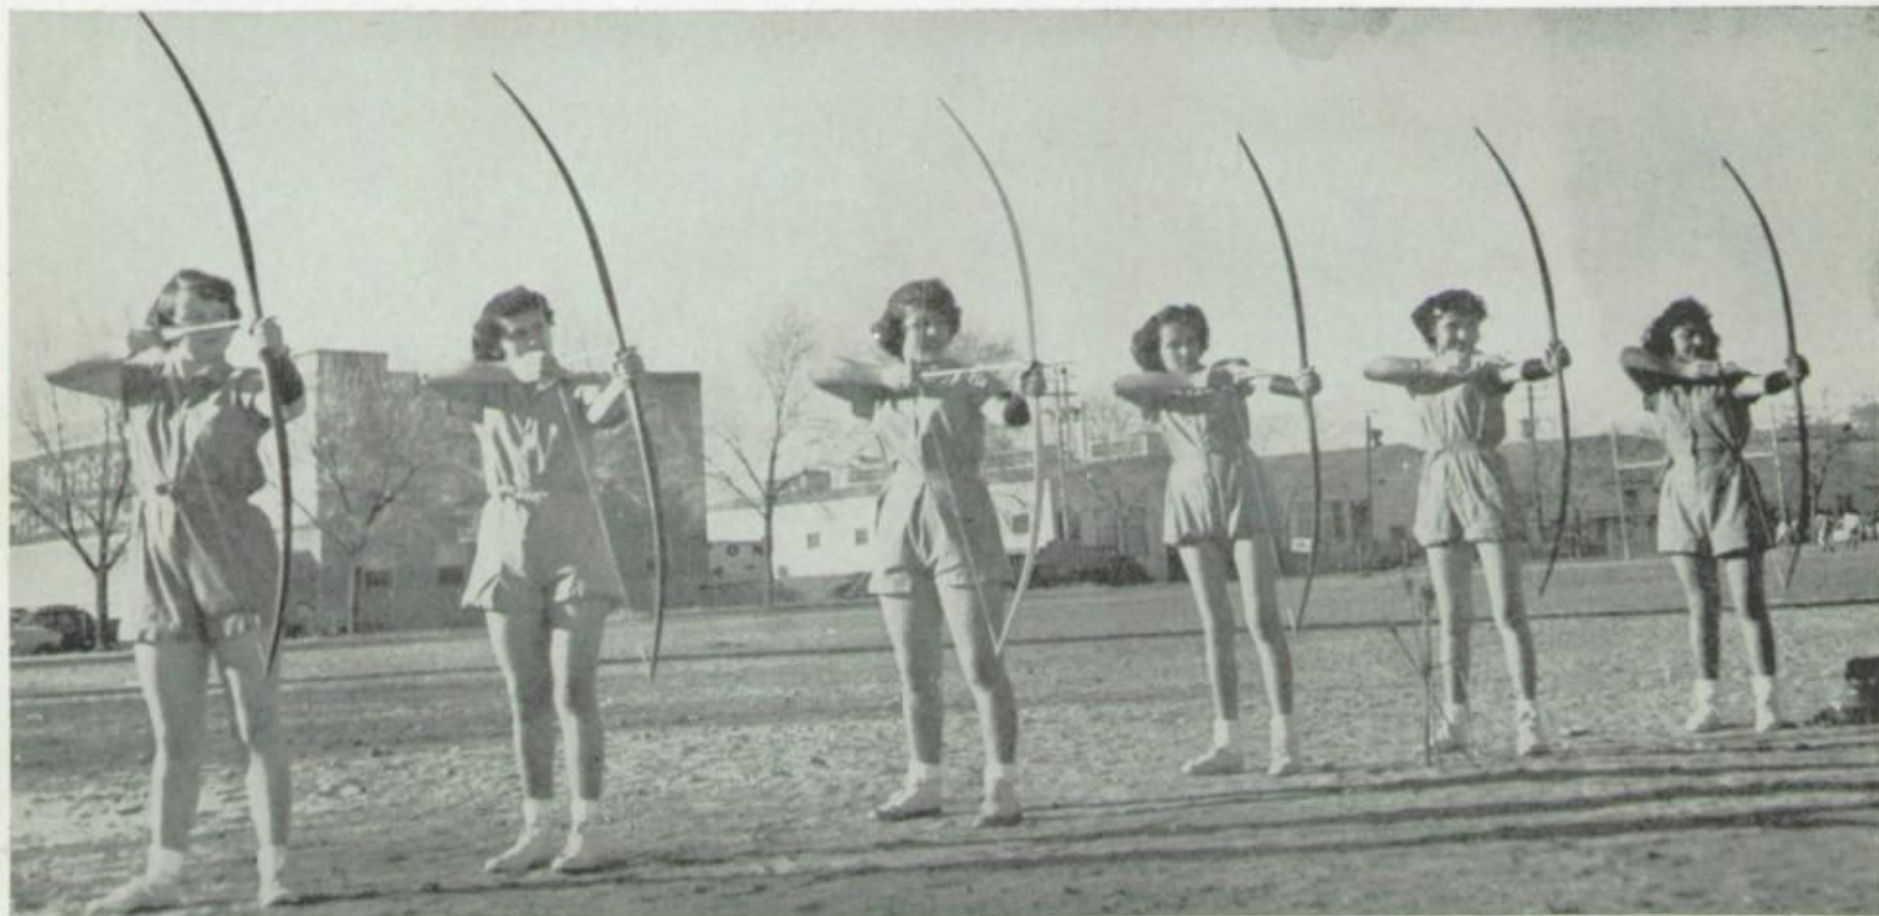

Swimming is not required of those who do not wish to attend; it is supplemented by a health class. This health class instructs the students not only in the problems of everyday health and the development of good health practices and habits, but also in the more serious methods of rescue and lifesaving.

These sports, not unlike boys' athletics, undergo seasonal changes and are replaced when warmer weather arrives by such sports as archery, soccer, field hockey and softball. In addition to the regular classes, the girls themselves have organized an intramural program under the instruction of Virginia Sacks, Eva Nobbs and Marion Hallock.

No not cupids, just the sixth period class of archery at AHS. Standing ready to fire are, left to right:

Ann Cartman, Betty Mora, Rosalie Pacheco, Mary Lou Moya, Tercila Delfin and Bertha Jaramillo.

Off to a good start, anyway, are these studious pupils: Jerry Morgan, Gordon Modrall, Bobby Matteucci, Hoyt Minatre, and Joe Padilla.

Thoughts of school seem to depress Troy Lawson; but Phyllis Hopkins, Irene Sanchez, and Jane Upchurch are apparently delighted.

November

Anytime, morning, noon, or after school, you'll find a crowd in the patio.

With a new coat of paint the Bulldog, so new last year, is now a familiar sight to all AHS students.

Pandemonium reigned after the annual AHS-HHS Thanksgiving Day game, as the Highland goal posts are stripped of their festive dress by enthusiastic Bulldog rooters.

"David, you're taller than I thought," says Ernestine Patino as she measures David Faw for his cap and gown.

Lou Delle Fidel, Peggy Abernathy and Bob Hook display various expressions as the bus for Las Vegas pulls out.

May

Senior Week and nothing to do, so these seniors: Gloria Garcia, Eugene Holly, Ginger Gutierrez, David Faw, La Verne Baum, and Tillie Maciel meet in the patio to exchange calling cards and gossip.

An exciting moment in the Intra-Class track meet for the spectators as an important event begins.

Second row: Everett Breeden, Fred Reeves, Sylvia Patino, Ruth Zimmerman.

Third row: James Meissen, Jimmy Hunton, Terry Fairchild, Jackie Barnes, Junior Walker, Celina Sanchez and Norris Deskin enjoyed the presentation as much as the students.

This Year's Customs

So new just two years ago, the Bulldog necklaces worn here by Patsy Pies, Peggy Wilkinson and Carol Bambrook are becoming as common to the girls as are the boys' green and white letter sweaters.

Seeing double? No, going steady. Barbara Hook and Bill Henry display matching shirts as signs of their affection.

Jane Fenley, head cheerleader, brings the season to an appropriate end by returning the cheerleaders' megaphones to Mr. Brown.

Very popular during the winter, these Confederate hats helped the "A" Club initiates stay warm.

tendants, who were flanked by members of the Drill Squad.

"Them Pearly Gates", the first prize float of Moneta Johnson's homeroom, were opened wide after the game to receive the defeated Cougars.

Prophecy of things to come, the Victory Bell, ringing for the Bulldogs on Mr. Miller's second prize float.

BULLDOG DAY

Bulldog Day at AHS this year was filled with the usual spirit of something to do other than attend regular classes.

Between the parking lots at Bruns and on Broadway, there scurried numerous hard working students in an endeavor to complete their homeroom floats.

Some sixty floats entered the parade, and competed for the four top prizes.

In the afternoon, the annual coronation and presentation of autographed footballs to the gracious queen and her attendants was made in a giant assembly held in the gym. This year's queen, Nelia Owen, and her "Here Comes the Parade!" Below are some of the sixty entrants in the parade.

Early in the morning scenes such as this were common as the students prepared their floats for the parade.

Fred Leyba serenaded the Queen after the Coronation with "Oh, You Beautiful Doll".

BULLDOG DAY

two attendants, Lucille Gutierrez and Celina Sanchez, reigned with the usual grace and charm bestowed upon them by the student body.

The traditional Bulldog Day game was also this year's bout with Saint Mary's of Albuquerque. Sports-writers throughout the city had predicted the outcome of the game as a toss-up between the age-old rivals. The thrilling game was climaxed when Donn Linberg intercepted a Saint Mary pass which would have scored the tying touchdown. Another touchdown in the last forty-eight seconds of the game gave AHS the winning touchdown with a final score of 26-20.

Leading the Bulldog Day Parade the AHS cheerleaders wore smiles of anticipated victory.

Nelia and her escort, Harry Owen, leave the field after the half-time ceremony at the game that night.

CHEERLEADERS

Our cheerleaders, peppy and full of school spirit, were very familiar sights at all the sports events this year. To Clara Lee Miller, Nancy Vann, Jane Fenley, Shirley Archibeck, Tresa Lanham and our mascot, Pauline Archibeck go the thanks of the entire student body.

MAJORETTES

The high-stepping majorettes were also favorites with everyone in the school. Their excellent exhibitions of baton twirling was the pleasant interlude at many a football game. Joyce Campbell, Mary Kay Hicks, Carol Jones, and head majorette Joanne Ticknor are certainly to be remembered with pleasure.

DRILL SQUAD

Members of the Color Guard are: Bob Hook, Earlene Butler, Patsy Bone, Bobby Taylor and Bert Terrazas.

Pioneer Day

On Friday, April 18, Albuquerque High's long-awaited Pioneer Day got off to a good start with everyone working hard to get their booths finished.

The first event of the day was the costume judging. Judges had a hard time trying to pick winners in the various divisions.

During and after the judging, students patronized such booths as "Hefferan's Hornet Hive", "Next to the Last Chance", and "Sling a Slug."

For students with tired feet, because of the unaccustomed boots, there were three assemblies which provided plenty of laughs and entertainment as the faculty went all out to provide a good time for all.

In the library, "Desperate Desmon's Dastardly Deed", Dramateens' Pioneer Day play, caused a sympathetic audience to boo the villain and cheer the heroine with great fervor.

A band concert in the patio and a Horse Show at Hopewell Field, presented by the Silver Saddles Club, were the events of the afternoon.

A dance that night in the cafeteria with music provided by the Albuquerque Wranglers brought the day to an appropriate end.
